Outline of Application Procedures for Japanese Entry Visas

The following is an outline of application procedures for Russian nationals who will apply for a temporary visitor’s visa (for a stay in Japan of up to 90 days) for such purposes as short-term business affairs, visiting relatives/acquaintances and tourism. In either case, it is not allowed to perform any activities to undertake revenue-generating business operations or activities to receive remuneration.

- A visa application for “short-term business affairs, etc.” means a visa application for the following purposes:
  - Cultural exchange, exchange between municipalities, sports exchange, etc.
  - Business liaison, participation in meetings, business consultations, contract signing, after-sales service, advertising, market research, etc, conducted for business purposes during a short period of stay in Japan
- A visa application for “visiting relatives/acquaintances” means a visa application for the purpose of visiting relatives (in principle, the spouse, blood relatives and relatives by affinity of up to the third degree) and acquaintances (including friends), or for the purpose of tourism.

General Remarks

List of basic documents to be submitted are different whether the travel expenses is provided by the visa applicant or the inviters of Japan side.

1. Prior to a visa application, the visa applicant needs to prepare “documents provided from Japan” (“short-term business affairs, etc.”, “visiting relatives/acquaintances”) listed on pages 5-8, from an inviting person/guarantor. It is not examined the papers to the Japanese Embassy/Consulate-General or Ministry of Foreign Affair in Japan from the inviting person/guarantor directly! (Note 1) Since the visa application procedure may take a considerable time, the documents should be prepared and sent to the applicant well in advance.
   (Note 2) The inviting person/guarantor is recommended to keep a copy of the documents in case of further inquiry.
2. The visa applicant needs to prepare a passport, two photos, two visa application forms and other necessary documents in addition to the above-mentioned documents. As the required documents vary depending on the local situation and the purpose of visit, please contact the Embassy/Consulate-General with jurisdiction over the visa applicant’s place of residence directly.
3. When all required documents are prepared, the visa applicant may submit the visa application at the Japanese Embassy/Consulate-General with jurisdiction over his/her place of residence. The application will not be accepted in Japan. The documents must be valid at the time of application, and must be submitted within three months of their date of issue. Any documents submitted at the time of application will not be returned to the applicant, with the exception of his/her passport.
4. The examination period is approximately one week, though it may vary depending on the details of the application. The applicant may be required to submit additional documents which are deemed necessary for the examination. The documents may be forwarded to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tokyo in order to further examination if necessary.
5. The Japanese Embassy/Consulate-General will notify the applicant of the result of the examination.
6. The validity of visas is three months. The period of validity cannot be extended.

The submitted documents will be managed appropriately based on the Act on the Protection of Personnel Information held by Administrative Organs.

Documents provided from Japan

[Short-term business affairs, etc.]

1. Letter of Reason for Invitation (See “Letter of Reason for Invitation” form (A4 size) on page 9.)
   (Note 1) The letter should be addressed to the Ambassador or the Consul-General with jurisdiction over the visa applicant’s place of residence.
   (Note 2) Column for the inviting person
   Be sure to fill out the name of the company/organization as well as your title and affix, and put the registered seal of the representative, or non-registered seal of the company or the sub-organ (a personal seal is unacceptable). If it is difficult to put the seal, a person in a position of authority at the company/organization may put his/her signature.
   (Note 3) Column for visa applicant
   Make sure the name is written in the Latin alphabet as it appears on his/her passport. If there are two or more visa applicants, fill in the status of the representative applicant in the blank column and attach a list of all applicants. (See “List of Visa Applicants (Example)” on page 10.)
   (Note 4) Column for the purpose of invitation
   Describe the purpose of visit in detail and explain the specific activities planned in Japan. (Vague phrases such as just “business affairs” are not appropriate.)
   (Note 5) Column for the background to the invitation
   Describe details about the background to the invitation. If there is not enough space on the form, attach a separate sheet of paper and write “See attached sheet” in the column.

2. Schedule of Stay (See “Schedule of Stay” form (A4 size) on page 11.)
   (Note) Follow the form of “Schedule of Stay (Example)” [Short-term business affairs, etc] on page 12.

3. Letter of Guarantee (See the “Letter of Guarantee” form (A4 size) on page 13.)
   (Note 1) The Letter of Guarantee may be omitted if the inviting person is in a position equivalent to or higher than the director of a section of a ministry, agency or office of the Japanese Central Government, or if the person is in a position equivalent to or higher than the head of a section of an independent administrative research institution of the nation or a professor/associate professor of a university, and the visa applicant is being invited in the course of the inviting person’s work.
   (Note 2) Be sure to fill out all items on the Letter of Guarantee, as an omission of even single item or a missing seal is regarded the Letter of Guarantee as an incomplete form.
   (Note 3) Follow the instructions in the “Letter of Reason for Invitation”.

4. Documents on the inviting organization (For national / local government, these documents are not necessary.)
   The inviting organization, in principle, should be a corporate body, an organization or a national / local government. However, if, for example, a university is extending an invitation for a purpose of exchange under the name of a professor/associate professor, he/she is regarded as the inviting organization.
   Submit one of the following:
   (a) Certified copy of corporate register issued within the three months
   (b) Copy of the latest edition of “Kaisha Shikiho” (quarter company journal / Japan Company Handbook)
   (c) “Overview of Company/Organization” (See “Overview of Company/Organization” form (A4 size) on page 14.)
   (d) Company/organization brochure
   (Note 1) When the same relevant documents as those for the last visa application have already been submitted to the same Embassy/Consulate-General in the same calendar year, submission of copies of those documents will suffice.
   (Note 2) In the case of an invitation by a university professor/associate professor, submit the Certificate of Employment instead.
[Visiting relatives/acquaintances]

1. Letter of Reason for Invitation (See “Letter of Reason for Invitation” form (A4 size) on page 9.)
   (Note 1) The relative/acquaintance in Japan who is inviting the visa applicant should prepare the Letter of Reason for Invitation.
   (Note 2) The letter should be addressed to the Ambassador or the Consul-General with jurisdiction over the visa applicant’s place of residence.
   (Note 3) Be sure to specify the address, full name and phone number, and be sure to affix personal seal behind the full name. (A foreign national who does not have a personal seal may sign it.)
   (Note 4) Make sure the name is written in the Latin alphabet as it appears on his/her passport. If there are two or more visa applicants, fill in the status of the representative applicant in the blank column and attach a list of all applicants. (See the “List of Visa Applicants (Example)” on page 10.)
   (Note 5) When the inviting person/guarantor invites relatives to assist during pregnancy or to provide care because of disease or to attend a wedding, documents proving the reason for the invitation are required – for example, a medical certificate concerning the pregnancy or disease, or a reservation form for the wedding reception.

2. Schedule of Stay (See “Schedule of Stay” form (A4 size) on page 11.)
   Follow the form of “Schedule of Stay” (Example) [Visiting relatives/acquaintances] on page 12.

   (Note 1) Be sure to fill out all items on the Letter of Guarantee, as an omission of even one item or a missing seal is regarded the Letter of Guarantee as an incomplete form.
   (Note 2) Follow the instructions in the “Letter of Reason for Invitation”.

4. Documents on the Guarantor
   (1) For Japanese national
      (a) Certificate of residence (including all family members’ information and issued within the three months.)
      (b) Certificate of Employment, Operating License (copies are acceptable) or other documents that certifies the occupation. (Not necessary if the guarantor does not have an occupation, for instance because he/she is a pensioner.)
      (c) The latest Certificate of Income/Taxation issued by the head of administration of the place of residence, or a copy of the counterfoil of final tax return with the official tax authority’s seal (for “e-Tax”, Receipt notification and final tax return).
         ♦ Each certificate should indicate the gross income for the previous year.
         ♦ Statement of Tax Withholding is not acceptable.

   (2) For foreign national
      When a foreign national is the guarantor, in principle, he/she is required to have one of the following residence statuses and to be currently residing in Japan:
      (a) Copy of both side of the “Residence card” (or special permanent residence certificate)
      (b) Certificate of Employment, Operating License (copies are acceptable) or other documents that certifies the occupation.
      (c) The latest Certificate of Income/Taxation issued by the head of administration of the place of residence, or a copy of the counterfoil of final tax return with the official tax authority’s seal (for “e-Tax”, Receipt notification and final tax return).
         ♦ Each certificate should indicate the gross income for the previous year.
         ♦ Statement of Tax Withholding is not acceptable.
(Note 1) When the inviting person is currently residing in Japan with the residence status of “student” and is inviting his/her parent(s) or other relatives with the guarantee of a professor or associate professor at the university where he/she is currently studying, the only documents required are the Letter of Guarantee and the Certificate of Employment of the professor/associate professor.

(Note 2) When the inviting person is a “Japanese government-financed foreign student” and he/she is inviting his/her parent(s) or other relatives, he/she should submit the following documents. In this case, it is not necessary to submit the Letter of Guarantee.

(a) Copy of both side of the “Residence card” (or special permanent residence certificate)
(b) One of the certificates below:
  • Certificate of Status for Japanese Government Scholarship Student
  • Certificate of Receipt of a Scholarship
  • Letter of Acceptance (document that specifies the status of the government-financed foreign student, the duration of the scholarship, the amount of the scholarship, the university department he/she belongs to and the status of student registration)

5. Documents as certificates that indicate a kinship or acquaintance relationship between inviting person and visa applicant.
   (1) For “visiting relatives”: Certified copy of the family register, etc. (Not necessary when the documents submitted by visa applicant.)

   (2) For “visiting acquaintances”: letters/e-mails, bills for international phone calls, photos of the visa applicants and inviting person taken together, etc.

6. Documents on inviting person. (It is necessary to submit these documents when the inviting person is different from the guarantor.)

   (1) For Japanese national
   (a) Certificate of residence (including all family members’ information and issued within the three months except for Individual Number (“My Number”) and Resident Register Code.)
   (b) Certificate of Employment, Operating License (copies are acceptable) or other documents that certify the occupation (Certificate of student registration. Not necessary if the guarantor does not have an occupation such as a pensioner.)

   (2) For foreign national
   (a) Copy of both side of the “Residence card” (or special permanent residence certificate)
   (b) Certificate of Employment, Operating License (copy is acceptable), or other documents that certifies the occupation (Certificate of student registration. Not necessary if the inviting person does not have an occupation.)
Single or multiple temporary visitor’s visa for a spouse of a Japanese national

The following is an outline of the application procedure for a temporary visitor’s visa (single or multiple) for a spouse of a Japanese national. The required documents shall be valid at the time of visa application and shall be issued within the three months.

Qualifications for the applicant
- Spouse living with a Japanese national who legally stays or spends long periods on business in a country/district where the applicant will submit a visa application.
- The marriage period should be more than one year (for MULTIPLE only).
- The applicant has not violated Japanese laws or regulations, including the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act during his/her stay in Japan.
- One or more records of entering Japan should be confirmed (for MULTIPLE only).

Documents to be submitted for temporary visitor’s visa application

Provided by visa applicant
1. 2 visa application forms (with photos)
2. Passport
3. Documents that certify the living together (For details, contact the Japanese Embassy/Consulate-General with jurisdiction over the applicant’s place of residence.)
4. Reason for requesting a MULTIPLE entry visa (for MULTIPLE only)

Provided by his/her Japanese spouse
1. Copy of passport
2. Copy of work permit or residence permit
3. Marriage certificate or certified copy of family register
   (Note) For applying for a multiple visa, submit a certified copy of family register.

Provided by visa applicant or his/her Japanese spouse
1. Certificate of Employment of the main provider of living expenses, or alternatives
2. Certificate of Income of the main provider of living expenses, or alternatives

The submitted documents will be managed appropriately based on the Act on the Protection of Personnel Information held by Administrative Organs.

Work and Long-term Stays
- When a visa application is made for long-term stay in Japan for such purposes as employment, residency, etc, the applicant shall submit the original copy of the Certificate of Eligibility which should be obtained by a proxy in Japan in advance. In order to obtain the Certificate of Eligibility, the proxy shall contact the regional Immigration Bureau of the Ministry of Justice with jurisdiction over his/her place of residence or the location of the company/organization if it acts as a proxy in Japan. (An application for the Certificate of Eligibility cannot be made at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.)
- Documents for a visa application with the Certificate of Eligibility include two visa application forms (both with photographs attached), a passport and the Certificate of Eligibility (original and one photocopy). If the applicant is a Ukrainian national, he/she must submit the birth certificate. The applicant may be required to submit additional documents. For details, please contact the Japanese Embassy/Consulate-General with jurisdiction over the applicant’s place of residence.
- If the Certificate of Eligibility cannot be obtained for some reason, the visa application can be made directly at the Japanese Embassy/Consulate-General. In such cases, however, it may take considerable time until the applicant gets the result of the review.
