1. OLD IRONSIDES: The USS Constitution, also known as "Old Ironsides," earned her nickname because of her invincibility in battle. She was launched in 1797 and is the oldest fully commissioned naval vessel in the world.

2. OLD NORTH CHURCH: Built in 1723, this is the oldest church building in Boston. The first bells on the American continent sounded from Old North Church in 1744. Its steeple is best known for the lantern signal that sent Paul Revere on his famous ride.

3. THE SEAPORT DISTRICT: Also known as the South Boston Waterfront, the Seaport District is home to The Institute of Contemporary Art, Boston Children's Museum, Harbor Walk and South Station Transportation Center.

4. BOSTON TEA PARTY: The site where the Rebels threw British Tea into Boston Harbor. Today, the Boston Tea Party is located on Congress Street Bridge and is a floating Boston Museum.

5. LOGAN AIRPORT: Logan Airport covers 2,384 acres, has six runways and employs an estimated 16,000 people. It's the largest airport in New England and the fourteenth busiest airport in the world, boasting one of the nation's tallest control towers.

6. BUNKER HILL MONUMENT: The monument marks the site of the famous battle of Bunker Hill fought on June 17, 1775. It stands 221 feet high.

7. CASTLE ISLAND: A 22 acre park located in Dorchester Massachusetts, Pleasure Bay, the M Street Beach and Carson Beach make up 3 miles of its shoreline. It's easily seen by Fort Independence, a pentagonal five-bastioned, granite fort built in 1934.

8. SPECTACLE ISLAND: Located 15 minutes from downtown Boston. Spectacle Island is home to a 157 foot hill—one of the tallest hills in Boston Harbor.

9. DEER ISLAND: Deer Island is connected to the mainland due to beach erosion from the legendary 1938 hurricane. Stroll along a 2.6-mile shoreline path and 2 miles of trails through the hills of the island.

10. LOVELL'S ISLAND: 7 miles offshore of downtown Boston, Lovell's Island is named after Captain William Lovell who was an early settler of nearby Dorchester. Today, Lovell's Island is a popular camping island with picnic areas and walking trails through its dunes and woods.

11. BOSTON LIGHT ON LITTLE BREWSTER ISLAND: The oldest continually used light station in the U.S. Its beams light 27 miles out into the Atlantic. It's part of the Brewsters, a group of the outermost islands, and an active U.S. Coast Guard navigational aid facility.

12. PEDDOCKS ISLAND: One of the largest islands in Boston Harbor. It has been home to American Indians, militiamen, prisoners of war and farmers. Peddocks Island was also home to Fort Andrews from the early 1900s through World War II.

13. ZAKIM BUNKER HILL MEMORIAL BRIDGE: The Bridge was built as part of the Big Dig—the largest highway construction project in the United States. It was finished in March 2003.